

Depositions of John M. Moody and others Taken on the 26th April 1859, at Goshung in the State of North Carolina, <sup>and County of Craven</sup> before the hands of sun rise and sun set, pursuant to a commission issued from the Clerk's office of the County of Greenville and lands annexed to be read as evidence on the part of the plaintiff, in a certain Chancery Suit now depending in the Circuit Court of Greenville County in the State of Virginia in which W. W. Robinson is plaintiff and P. H. Gorner P. H. Gorner and others are defendants—

The Deponent John M. Moody having been duly sworn deposes and says as follows— In the year 1855, I think in the month of January P. H. Gorner was indebted to me in the sum of about ten thousand dollars, and proposed to make me a payment in bonds if I would receive them, to which I consented— Among other bonds assigned to me on that occasion, he assigned to me three bonds against W. W. Robinson, one in the sum of one thousand dollars, one in the sum of twenty odd, and the other in the sum of thirty odd dollars, the exact amount of the two last not recollected— When he assigned the thousand dollar bond, he remarked that Robinson had paid some on it, but that he would assign it for five hundred dollars, which he did in writing on the back of the bond— P. H. Gorner did not finish making the payment on that occasion, and about ten or fifteen days afterwards, met me again for that purpose, and assigned other bonds, and remarked, at the time that some of the
