This deed made and entered into this the 31st day of March 1859 between James M. Garner & Elizabeth his wife of the first part and William J. Lundy Trustee of the Second part, Witnesseth that whereas the said Garner is indebted to Thomas Arent a Commissioner appointed by the County Court of Greenville to sell the land of which Thomas Johnson died seized, for division among the legatees, in two notes for the sum of two hundred & ninety dollars and twenty five cents each, bearing date the 3rd day of May, 1853, and due the 3rd day of May 1863 respectively, to which said note Lundy Arent is security, and whereas the said ~~James M. Garner~~ Garner is indebted to Lundy Arent in a note for two hundred & five dollars & ninety six cents, due the 21st day of Jan'y 1859 Now therefore, the said Garner & wife being anxious and desirous to secure the said Lundy Arent against all loss by reason of his Suretyship on the note above described, and also to secure the payment of the note above set forth due to said Lundy Arent individually, they the said Garner and wife do hereby convey unto the said Lundy Trustee the following property, to wit, the tract of land on which said Garner now resides being the land of which <sup>Thomas Johnson</sup> died seized & possessed, containing about three hundred acres more or less, in trust to secure & save harmless the said Lundy Arent by reason of his Suretyship on the note above mentioned and also to secure the payment of to said Arent of the foregoing note due to him individually, and further likewise to secure & save harmless the said Lundy Arent ~~the~~ said Lundy Arent by reason of his Suretyship for said Garner as Executor of Elizabeth Johnson's dead. The said Trustee shall not be required to sell any of the <sup>foregoing</sup> property until after the first day of November next, but after said time shall whenever required, after due notice seen to the highest bidder the foregoing property or such portion thereof as may be necessary for the purposes of this trust, including a commission of five per cent, and shall pay over to the party hereby intended to be secured such sum or sum of money as may be due, and the balance if any, to the Grantor his heirs or assigns.
