

loving grandparents), who prayed and encouraged us in seminary, to Mrs. Eloise Jones (Becky's great aunt), who helped us financially to reach our career goals, to our dear son Joshua, who saw his parents too often at the typewriter, and to you, the people of Fountain Creek Baptist Church.

Jim D. Nelson

August 1, 1987

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|            |  |
|------------|--|
| Chapter 1: | THE BEGINNING  |
| Chapter 2: | CHANGING AND MATURING  |
| Chapter 3: | THE BAILEY YEARS   |
| Chapter 4: | RECOVERING FROM RECONSTRUCTIONAND THE CLOSING OF THE           |
| Chapter 5: | BEGINNING A NEW CENTURY  |
| Chapter 6: | A WORLD WAR AND DEPRESSION   |
| Chapter 7: | RECOVERY AND ANOTHER   |
| Chapter 8: | EXPANDING MINISTRIESSOCIAL ISSUES                              |
| Chapter 9: | EXPANSION, MISSIONSAND LOOKING FORWARDTWENTY-FIRST CENTURY |
|            | Appendix   |