ABRAHAM LITTLETON GARDNER I

AND

HIS DESCENDANTS

Abraham Littleton Gardner was the son of James III and Ann Gardner. He was born July 28, 1792 and as a young man served in the War of 1812. For this service the United States Government granted him a small piece of property in Norfolk, Virginia. This property was in the possession of his son, Abraham Littleton Gardner II and from it a small settlement was eventually made to Lelia Norfleet Gardner, the widow of Abraham L. Gardner II.

Abraham Littleton Gardner I was first married to Malinda Dillard. They were married March 9, 1820. She was born July 21, 1802 and died April 30, 1837. There were eight children born to this union (see chart 5B2). They were: Elmina Frances Gardner, Narcipa Anneles Gardner, Felix Gardner, Benjamin Franklin Gardner, Agnes M. Gardner, Staniolus Gardner, Lavinia Gardner, and Cornelia D. Gardner.

1. ELMINA FRANCES GARDNER was the daughter of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. She was born Dec. 15, 1820 and died four years later on Nov. 14, 1824.

2. NARCIPA ANNELES GARDNER was another daughter of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. She was born May 24, 1822 and died when she was nearly 21 years old on April 7, 1843.

3. STANIOLUS GARDNER was a son of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. He was born March 29, 1824 and died Oct. 5, 1825.

4. LAVINIA GARDNER was a daughter of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. She was born Oct. 18, 1826. She married Jas. Norfleet Jan. 25, 1844 and died Dec. 4, 1844. She had not been married a year when she died.

5. FELIX GARDNER was another son of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. He was born Dec. 5, 1828 and died Oct. 4, 1831.

6. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN GARDNER was another son of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. He was born Sept. 14, 1835 and died Aug. 29, 1852.

7. AGNES M. GARDNER was another daughter of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. She was born July 20, 1832 and died Oct. 20, 1848.

8. CORNELIA D. GARDNER was also a daughter of Abraham L. I and Malinda D. Gardner. She was born Jan. 20, 1831. She is the only one of these children to marry and have a child. She married Everett E. Ellis and they had one child: Everett E. Ellis II. He married and had at least three children: two daughters (I do not know their names) and a son, Everett E. Ellis III.

I have not been able to find any other information on this family.

As one can see four of these children died by the time they were four years old. One lived to be 21 and another to the age of seventeen. Lavinia died at age eighteen, shortly after she married Jas. Norfleet. Cornelia was the only one to marry and have children of her own. Her husband was Everett E. Ellis and he was from Sussex County, Virginia.

The first time Abraham Littleton Gardner is mentioned in the South Quay Baptist Church History is Dec. 2, 1827. He remained with this church until Oct. 8, 1835. At that time he was expelled as were many others. This is when the church split and the new church was established in Nansemond County. He later asked to be reinstated and this was granted. Many of the people, who had been expelled, came to the new church over a period of years and asked to be received. All were granted this request.

His second wife was Susan Ann Harrison. She was the daughter of William Harrison and Nancy Deberry Harrison, who lived near Smith's Ferry. William Harrison was married twice. There were two children born from his first marriage and they were Susan Ann Harrison and James Carey Harrison. James Carey Harrison was killed in the Civil War. William's second wife was a Savage. I do not know her first name. There were two daughters born to this marriage and they were: Mollie Harrison and Laura Harrison. Mollie Harrison never married. Laura Harrison married Dr. W. J. Lawrence and lived near Tarboro, North Carolina. See chart 5B2 Continued for Abraham Littleton and Susan H. Gardner.

Abraham L. Gardner and his second wife, Susan Ann Harrison, had two children. Their names were: Eugenia Deberry Gardner and Abraham Littleton Gardner II. Please note that Abraham L. Gardner II never used "Jr. or II" in referring to himself. I added "II" myself to distinguish between him, his father, and his son in this book.

1. EUGENIA DEBERRY GARDNER was the daughter of Abraham Littleton and Susan Ann H. Gardner. I do not have a birth or death date for her. She married James E. Jones, a Baptist Minister. James E. Jones was a member of South Quay Baptist Church. He became a lay minister and on a motion by Abraham Howell was licensed to preach by South Quay Baptist Church in Dec., 1877. At this time the church had just called Rev. Joseph A. Deans to serve as pastor of the church. During the years between 1877 and 1884 James E. Jones preached on the fourth Sunday of each month and Rev. Joseph A. Deans conducted the Worship service the rest of the time. Rev. Deans resigned as minister in March of 1884 and Rev. James E. Jones was called at that time as pastor of the church. He served as pastor of the church until Jan. 1, 1912, at which time he retired. He served the church for seven years as part time minister and then Twenty eight years as full time minister. This was a period of thirty five years which he was part time and full time minister. The church grew and prospered under his leadership. For Eugenia Gardner Jones and her husband, Rev. James E. Jones, see chart 6B5.

Eugenia and James E. Jones were married Feb. 6, 1866 and eight children were born to this union. Their names were: Pattie Sue Jones, J. Paul Jones, Ruth Jones, William A. Jones, Carrie Jones, Philip Jones, Agnes Jones, and Jim Tom Jones.

A. PATTIE SUE JONES was a daughter of James E. and Eugenia G. Jones. She married Hugh Lawrence. I have no other information for her and her family.

B. J. PAUL JONES married Odell Rawles. He was the son of James E. and Eugenia G. Jones. I have no other information for him.

C. RUTH JONES was another daughter of James E. and Eugenia G. Jones. She married John W. Robertson. No other information.

D. AGNES JONES was also a daughter of James E. and Eugenia G. Jones. She married Percy Vaughan. Again I have no other information for her and her family.

E. CARRIE JONES was another daughter of James E. and Eugenia G. Jones. She married Randolph Rawles (see chart 7B6). They had five children and their names were: Elizabeth Rawles, Charles Rawles, Robert Cutchins Rawles, James Jones Rawles, and Eugenia Rawles.

(1) EUGENIA RAWLES is the daughter of Randolph and Carrie J. Rawles. She was born Oct. 19, 1917. She married H. DeLaney Hingerty and they live at 10888 Weynoke Rd. Suffolk, Virginia. DeLaney is a farmer and still tills the land. They have no children. They have helped raise a nephew, Joseph Thomas Rawles. He is the son of James (Jim) Jones Rawles. DeLaney and Eugenia were married in April of 1943. They are members of South Quay Baptist Church and attend there each week. Their home is about three miles from the church. The information on Abraham Littleton Gardner was taken from the A. L. Gardner family Bible, which is in the home of Eugenia and DeLaney Hingerty.

I have known DeLaney for many years but did not know until recently that his wife, Eugenia, was any kin to me.
