 party of the first part; James S. Flythe party of the second part; and John A. Bishop W. W. Edwards and W. B. Wise party of the third part.
 Witnesseth: that whereas the said Samuel W. Livernon is indebted to John V. Lawrence in the sum of One hundred Eighty Seven Dollars and a half with interest thence from the 16th day of November A.D.
 1854, to secure which he has at that date Executed three bonds, each in the sum of Sixty two and a half dollars, payable to said Lawrence, severally at one, two and three years thenceupon and each bearing interest from that date, which three bonds have been also executed by said John A. Bishop and William W. Edwards, as sureties; And whereas the said Samuel W. Livernon being, in like manner and sum, indebted to Peniah Vaughan, did on the said 16th day of November A.D. 1854, Execute three separate bonds, which were also Executed by said Bishop and Edwards as sureties, payable to him, at one, two, and three years from that date. Each for the sum of Sixty two and a half Dollars, and bearing interest from same date; And whereas the said Samuel W. Livernon is further indebted to the said John A. Bishop, in the sum of One hundred and thirty two Dollars and ninety one cents by bond Executed by him to said Bishop, for that sum, of even date with these presents, and bearing interest from date; And whereas the said Samuel W. Livernon is also further indebted to said William B. Wise
