

County and on the <sup>said</sup> ~~land~~ <sup>land</sup> of Meherrin River, containing twelve hundred and six acres, belonging to the Estate of Joseph Turner and also laid four hundred and thirty five acres, as the Widows Dower, in said Tract of Land, <sup>which land is</sup> bounded as followeth, Beginning on a dead Hickory standing on said Meherrin River, a Corner to the Land, belonging to the Estate of Robert Hicks died at A from A to B. by said deceased Line S. 19. W 194 pole to a sweet Gum in a Pond, a Corner to the said Hicks and James Parham from B. to C. by his Line S 87. West 190. pole to a Willow Oak from C. to D. S 3. East 105 pole, to a Stake at said Parham's fence, from D. to E. S 66. West at 46 poles crossing the Road 117 pole, to a Red Oak, from E. to F. S 3. E 78 pole to a Dogwood formerly the Center of three Trees, from F. to G. S 60 E 36 pole, to the center of three pines a Corner to the said Parham, and Hicks died. from G. to H. due South 144 pole to a pine a Corner to said Hicks in Robert Deppes Line by his Line from H. to I. S 54. West 44 pole to a Black Gum in the Top Branch, then by line S 54. West 96 pole to a Dogwood formerly a Red Oak from I. to J. S 31. East 60 pole to the center of three Trees a Corner to James Turner, from J. to K. by his Line S 63. West a Corner fell down, from K. to L. S 39. W 112 pole to