

To the Hon^{ble}. Judge of the Circuit Court of Greenville County,

The separate answer of John M. Moody to a Bill thundered Bill exhibited against him & then in this case by W. W. Robinson.

This Respondent saving &c. reserving &c. for answer to so much of said Bill as he is advised it is material or necessary for him to answer, says, that on the 20th day of Jan^y 1855, P. H. Garner was indebted to this Respondent about $10,000, which he proposed to pay in Bonds, to which this Respondent consented, that said P. H. Garner at that time transferred to your Respondent with other claims $500. of a Bond for $1,000, executed by W. W. Robinson to him bearing date on the 24th day of Dec^r 1852, payable with int^r from that date. On the 1st day of Jan^y 1854, that Garner represented at that time, that said Robinson had paid a part of said Bond but he did not know how much, & for that reason he assigned but $500. of the Bond.

But that subsequent thereto, to wit on the 30th day of Jan^y 1855, just ten days thereafter the said Garner being unable to make up the balance in other paper proposed to give a full assignment of the whole Bond, which he then & there did and assigned the whole face of the Bond to this Respondent, for the whole $1,000. & its interest & two other small Bonds. the one for $27.20 cts & the other for the sum of $33.08 cts, which 3 Bonds with their interest amounted to more than $1,000.
Upon application to W. W. Robinson he produced receipts to him from Garner for two sums to wit $400. & $200. in part of said Bonds but stated that he still owed $500. said Robinson
