This book has been an adventure- I have discovered roots, why things are done a certain way, and the people who have made Fountin Creek the great church that it is. This year of research, asking somewhat ridiculous questions, and spending long hours into the night have paid off- you have the opportunity to go on a pilgrimage of the faith of Fountain Creek.

There are many things that stand out in the history- mission givings, stamina, leadership, but more than anything else, I will always remember how love has played an important role in accomplishing the goals of ministry.

So many people run through my mind to thank-thank you, the dear people of Fountain Creek, for being patient and giving me time to write such a volume. Your love is indeed extraordinary!

Becky and I dedicate this book to Mrs. Evelyn Nelson (my Mother), who instilled a genuine faith in me, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jones (Becky's
