W. Long & Thomas Bragg Jr., should there be any overplus of the Estate, not hereby secured to the use and benefit of the said Estate & children after the payment of the just debts & liabilities of the said Co. I. Exem, to convey the same unto the said Exem or his heirs Executors or Administrators in as full & ample manner as if the same had never been held by them in trust - And in the last place it is understood and hereby provided, that in case either or both of the trustees herein named shall be desirous of freeing himself from the duties herein imposed, he shall be at liberty so to do, & some other person to be agreed upon by the said trustees & the said Co. I. Exem, shall be substituted in his stead - and if they cannot agree as to the person thus to be substituted, then it shall be the duty of the said Trustees to apply to a Court of Equity for the purpose of appointing a trustee or trustees, to carry into effect the provisions of this trust - and it is further agreed that the said W. Long & Thomas Bragg Jr. shall for their services as trustees take and receive reasonable commissions for their trouble in performing the duties herein imposed. In testimony whereof the parties hereunto have hitherto set their hands and affixed their seals the day and date first above written
