

- No 144. Temperance Brown wife of James Brown, free born April 7 of yellowish Complexion Thirty six years old five feet 5 inches high in Shoes, no mark or scar discernible on her hands or face. & her 5 children viz Berry Brown, 87th June boy, Varian, Delia & Francis Ann daughter No 145. Sally Jones free born of black Complexion between April 7 forty five years old 5 feet 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches high in Shoes 1825 a mark on the back of her right hand occasioned by a burn no other mark or scar discernible on her hand or face and her Daughter fairly young between three and four years old.
- No 146. Peggy Jones free born of a yellow complexion about 28 years old 5 feet $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches April 7 high in Shoes. She has a small black mark on her right hand ^{5 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches} no other mark or 1825 scar discernible on her hands or face. occasioned by occupation a weaver
- No 147. Phineas Green free born of a light Complexion between April 18 28 & 29 years old five feet $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches high in Shoes has 1825 a small scar on his left wrist occasioned by a burn another scar under his right eye by occupation a planter
- No 148. Henry Howitt free born of a yellowish Complexion between May 21 and 22 years of age 5 feet $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches high bare footed 1825 has a scar a little below his under lip, one on his nose between his eyes, and one scar on his forehead. Another on the inner side of his left thumb. by occupation a Carpenter and painter
- No 149. James Birchfield Lundy born free on the 29th day of February April 28 1804 of a bright yellow Complexion five feet high to the top 1825 of his head 5 feet 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches high in Shoes has a scar on his forehead nearly between his eyes, and several other small scars on his left hand. By trade a Cabinet Maker
- No 150. Ted alias Ted Mobey emancipated by the last will & June 11 testament of itahamit a citizen and of record in my office of a light dark Complexion Thirty four years old five feet $7\frac{1}{4}$ inches high - two small scars on his right wrist. No other mark or scar discernible, by occupation a planter and lawyer
- No 151. George Watkins son of Mary Watkins free born 22 years old of January 3rd 1826 a yellow Complexion 5 feet $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches high in shoes has a large scar on the left side of his face, a small scar in his forehead. by occupation a driller