

CHAPTER 9

Nelson Bennett Gardner

SON OF MATTHEW AND MARGARET V. GARDNER

Nelson Bennett Gardner was the son of Matthew Gardner, Jr. and his wife, Margaret Vaughan Gardner. He was born Nov. 10, 1810. This means he was only seven years old when his sister, Barbara Ellen Gardner, married Soloman E. Daughtrey Feb. 17, 1817.

Nelson's father's Will was probated Aug. 20, 1827. He was seventeen years old at that time. His father, Matthew Gardner, Jr., left him fifty dollars in the Will. But I believe Matthew had already given him some land before the Will was written. I believe this because a court document in Southampton County said he had land which was next to his step mother's land when she died. Nelson must have sold this land at a later date because his farm (plantation) of later years was on the east side of the Blackwater River in Isle of Wight County. If you look back at his father's Will, you will see that his land was in Southampton County on the west side of the Blackwater River.

Nelson married Unity Daughtrey Oct. 3, 1828. He was not quite eighteen years old at the time.

Unity Daughtrey was the daughter of Thomas Daughtrey and his wife, Sally. Unity was born July 13, 1806. I do not know when Nelson sold his land in Southampton County or how long he lived there.

The farm on which he and Unity lived and raised their family was in Isle of Wight County. This farm was next to the Black Water River and just across the river from where I believe Nelson to have been born. This farm is located on Wash Hole Road, just south of the Union Camp Corp. paper mill in Isle of Wight County, Virginia.

It is now owned by Ray Butler and is still under cultivation. It is not as large today as it was when Nelson and Unity Gardner owned it.

The family cemetery is located on the farm, but is grown over with weeds today. I understand that Nelson B. Gardner, Unity Daughtrey Gardner, Emmaline Whitfield Gardner, and several of the children are buried there.

The Nelson B. Gardner family Bible list him as having been baptized the first Sunday in Sept. in 1845. This baptism is bound to have been at South Quay Baptist Church. He is listed as being present at a conference of this church in April, 1847. From that time until his death, Aug. 16, 1894, he is mentioned many times in the history of this church. He was active in the church and was one of the leaders there for over forty years.

Nelson and his wife, Unity, had been married for nearly fifty years when she died, Feb. 25, 1883. They had raised a large family. The family Bible list seven children born from this union. They were: Sally Mariah Gardner, Matthew Gardner, Elizabeth Lucindy Gardner, Nancy Gardner, Emma Lou Gardner, and George Nelson Gardner (see chart 5A3 on page 195 for Nelson Bennett and Unity Gardner and their children).

Nelson married Emmaline Whitfield after Unity died. I do not have the date of this marriage. Nelson had to be in his seventies at the time though. He was born in 1810 and Unity died in 1883.

He and Emmaline had two children. They were: Dora Louise Gardner and Anna Margaret Gardner (see chart 5A3 continued on page 120 for Nelson and Emmaline).

The farm on which he and Unity raised their family was owned by Unity. She must have received the farm as an inheritance. She left all her property, personal and real, to her husband, Nelson Bennett Gardner. After Nelson's death the farm was to go to George Nelson Gardner, her son. The Will then instructed how the money was to be divided and George was to also pay several of his brothers and sisters a given amount of money.

When Nelson B. Gardner died, his son, George N. Gardner, sold the personal property and followed the other instructions of his mother's Will.

On the next several pages will be found copies of the Will of Unity Gardner and the sale of the estate of Nelson B. Gardner. There is also a copy of the division of the estate by George N. Gardner to his brothers and sisters. There are also several family charts on the next few pages.

The next few pages will be devoted to Nelson B. and Emmaline Whitfield Gardner and their descendants. There were two children born to Nelson and Emmaline. They were: Dora Louise Gardner and Anna Margaret Gardner.

1. ANNA MARGARET GARDNER was born May 9, 1889. She married James Cobb. I do not have any dates for either of them. They did not have any children.

2. DORA LOUISE GARDNER was born Aug. 3, 1886. She first married Julius Harcum. They had two children, Ethel Harcum and Julian Harcum.

A. JULIAN HARCUM never married.

Michael Floyd Carr, born Sept. 6, 1957 and George Thomas Carr. born Aug. 5, 1959. Evelyn's first husband is dead. She is now married to Charles Payne (see chart 5A3 on page 121).

After Dora's first husband, Juluis Harcum, died, she married James Carey Daughtrey. There were two daughters born to this union. They are Doris Daughtrey, born Aug. 29, 1924 and Lois Anne Daughtrey, born Aug. 17, 1927.

C. DORIS DAUGHTREY married Linwood Kirkland. Linwood was born Sept. 20, 1924. They have two children.

They are: Nancy Carrol Kirkland, born May 6, 1956 and James Carey Kirkland, born Dec. 15, 1959. Doris and Linwood's home is built on the edge of Doris's mother and father's farm, which is on Dogwood Bend Rd., Franklin, Virginia.

(1). NANCY KIRKLAND is married to Robbie E. Lee and they live on the same farm as does her mother and father.

(2). JAMES CAREY KIRKLAND has never married.

(See chart 6A3 for Doris, Linwood, and their family).

Susan and Charles make their home in Newsomes, Virginia.

For Lois and James Daughtrey and their family see chart 7A8.

This completes the information which I have on Nelson B. and Emmaline Whitfield Gardner and their descendants.

This next section will be dedicated to Nelson B. and Unity Gardner's descendants and will be rather lengthy.

1. SALLY MARIA GARDNER was a daughter of Nelson B. and Unity Gardner. She was born Apr. 16, 1834. Sally married Henry Harrison Duke Feb. 26, 1852. There were six children born to this union. They were: David Duke, Mary E. Duke, Martha Duke, Nelson L. Duke, Joseph Henry Duke, and Emiler (Emma) Loucrissy Duke (see chart 6A4A on page 132).

A. DAVID DUKE was born Nov. 17, 1857. He married Caroline Duck Dec. 15, 1887.

B. MARY E. DUKE was born Feb. 21, 1852.

C. MARTHA DUKE was born July 6, 1854.

D. NELSON L. DUKE was born Oct. 22, 1855.

E. JOSEPH HENRY DUKE was born Aug. 23, 1859. I have no other information on these four children.

F. EMILER (EMMA) LOUCRISSY DUKE was born May 1, 1861. She married Joseph Lankford. Their daughter, Mary Lou Lankford, was born Aug. 29, 1892.

(1). MARY LOU LANKFORD married Elvin Harrell Whitley. For those of you who live in the Franklin, Virginia area, Elvin H. Whitley was the official Santa Clause of Franklin for many years. I know that many of you will remember him in this role.

Mary and Elvin H. Whitley had two sons. They are: Roland Whitley and Elvin Harrell Whitley, Junior.

Mary Lou Whitley died Aug. 21, 1969.

CHART 6A4A

Sally Maria Gardner B. Apr. 16, 1834
 Husband: Henry Harrison Duke - Married: Feb. 26, 1852

(A). ROLAND WHITLEY does not have any children. He lives on Joyners Bridge Rd., Carrsville, Virginia.

Roland has supplied most of the information on this branch of the Gardner family.

(B). ELVIN HARRELL WHITLEY, JR. was born July 25, 1912. He married Ira Edwards. She was born Feb. 15, 1914. Ira and Elvin H. Whitley, Jr. live at 1601 Clay St., Franklin, Virginia.

They have two sons, Gerald Edward Whitley and Elvin Harrell Whitley III.

(1). GERALD E. WHITLEY was born Oct. 22, 1941. He married Jean Chapman. They have no children. He works for Union Camp Corp. in Franklin, Virginia.

(2). ELVIN HARRELL WHITLEY III married Linda Bozard. He and Linda have two daughters, Ashley Whitley and Anne Renee. Elvin H. Whitley III lives at 740 Park Dale Ave., Norfolk, Virginia.

Sally Maria Gardner's husband, Henry Harrison Duke, was also a soldier during the Civil War. His youngest daughter, Emily, was born after he left for service with the army. His wife, Sally, died before he returned from the war in 1865.

2. NANCY GARDNER was another daughter of Nelson B. and Unity Gardner. She was born May 7, 1840.

Nancy married Randall Vaughan and they had one son. Their son's name was Lorenzo Vaughan.

Nancy died at age twenty seven, Oct. 28, 1867. Her husband, Randall Vaughan, then married Nancy's sister, Lydia Matildy Gardner.

3. LYDIA MATILDY GARDNER was born Oct. 10, 1844. I have no other information on these two families.

4. EMMA LOU GARDNER was also a daughter of Nelson B. and Unity Gardner. She was born July 15, 1846. She married Capt. George Withy.

George Withy was born Jan. 15, 1848 in England. He came to Virginia as a young child with his parents. He had one sister, Helen Withy. She married a man from Baltimore, Maryland.

Capt. George Withy was chief navigation officer for the Albemarle Steam and Navigation Company. This company operated steam boats on the Blackwater and Chowan Rivers as well as the Albemarle Sound. These boats served Franklin, Virginia, Hertford, Murfreesboro, and Edenton, North Carolina. For many years Capt. George Withy was a prominent citizen of Franklin, Virginia.

George and Emma G. Withy had two daughters. The were Lizzy (Elizabeth?) Withy and Mary Withy.

A. LIZZY WITHY married William (Willie) Riddick Hayes. He was the son of Timothy and Lavinia Hayes. He also became a steam boat captain with the Albemarle Steam and Navigation Company. No doubt, his father in-law helped in this.

B. MARY WITHY married Adolphus Ashburn Cutchins. Mary was born in 1873. Adolphus and Mary Cutchins had two children which I know of. They were Adolphus Ashburn Cutchins, Jr. and Lizzy Mae Cutchins.

(1). LIZZY MAE CUTCHINS was born in 1899. She never married. Lizzy Mae lived and worked in Franklin, Virginia all her life. I knew her as I was growing up and every one always used her double name when referring to her (Lizzy Mae). She was the librarian for the Franklin town Library for many years. She died in 1989 and is buried in the cemetery in Franklin, Virginia.

(2). ADOLPHUS ASHBURN CUTCHINS, JR. was born in 1906. He married Laura Cook. He died in 1985. Laura was born in 1915 and died in 1964. They are both buried in a plot next to Lizzy Mae Cutchins. I have not tried to trace this family any farther.

5. ELIZABETH LUCINDY GARDNER was the daughter of Nelson B. and Unity Gardner. She was born Mar. 7, 1839. She married James P. Whitfield March 14, 1871. The Whitfield family also lived on Wash Hole Road in Isle of Wight County.

James P. Whitfield was the son of John and Narcissa Whitfield. John Whitfield's father was Josiah Whitfield and his great grandfather was Reuben Whitfield. Reuben Whitfield immigrated to Virginia from England with his wife, date unknown. John Whitfield's grandfather's name has been lost to the family and therefore is not included in the family genealogy.

Reuben Whitfield located in the southern part of Isle of Wight. County, Virginia and took possession of about 2,000 acres of land. He had one son, name unknown. This son had at least one son, Josiah Whitfield. Josiah Whitfield had three sons. They were: Robert, Ben, and John Whitfield. John Whitfield had two daughters and one son. These children were: Sarah, Martha, and James P. Whitfield.

The above genealogy of the Whitfield family was compiled by Roscoe M. Whitfield, grandson of James P. Whitfield. I know this is not a complete record of the Whitfield family genealogy because there is no mention of Emmaline Whitfield. She was Nelson B. Gardner's second wife.

James P. Whitfield enlisted in the Confederate Army on the grounds of Beaver Dam Baptist Church in April, 1861. He was in Company F-61, Virginia Regiment, General Mahone's Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia. Jacob Bradshaw was the Captain of this Company. By 1862 Capt. William E. Barnes was company commander of Company F-61.

Roscoe Whitfield wrote that his grandfather, James P. Whitfield, told him many stories of the battles he was in during the Civil War. The ones he could remember were: The Battle of The Crater at Petersburg, Virginia, The Wilderness, Seven Pines, Gettysburg, and the surrender at Appomattox, Virginia in April, 1865.

James served with the Army of Northern Virginia the entire war and his name appears on the list of paroled prisoners of war signed by General Lee and General Grant at Appomattox, Virginia, 1865.

The battles listed above were all very costly to both the North and South in terms of men and equipment. Some of these were won by the South and some by the North.

The soldiers of the Confederacy as well as the citizens did not refer to this war as the Civil War, they called it the War Between the States. I included this because there are a lot of people who do not know this was the case.

I am sure that James saw many of his comrades fall in battle.

Many of these people were men he had grown up with and had known all his life. It is hard enough to see a person die that you have known for a short time but just think how devastating it would be to watch life long friends die in every battle. This went on for four long years before it finally ended at Appomattox Court House. On pages 213 and 214 will be found some records of James P. Whitfield's army service.

Two of Southampton County's sons became Generals in the Civil War. One was a Union General and one was a Confederate General.

William Mahone was born in Monroe, Virginia. Monroe was located six miles west of Franklin, Virginia and was on the west side of the Nottoway River. The bridge which crosses the river at that point is named Monroe Bridge.

Monroe was a planned town which had streets laid out as well as building lots. It never became much more than a plan on a map. There were two or three houses built there but the town never developed. I suspect that William Mahone's father had planned to build a tavern there but never did so. His father did build a two story brick house there and that is where William was born.

The house is still standing today but is in poor disrepair. I believe it should be renovated and preserved as a national historic site.

William Mahone's father moved to Jerusalem (Courtland), Virginia and operated Mahones Tavern. This tavern was in front of and across the street from the Southampton County Court House.

William, as a young man, carried the mail from Jerusalem to Hicks Ford (now Emporia), Virginia.

He attended and graduated from V.M.I. with a degree in engineering. He worked for several railroads during his life.

William Mahone was not a professional soldier like Generals Lee and Johnson but soon proved his ability leading five regiments in the battles of Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville. His greatest victory was at Petersburg, Virginia in the Battle of the Crater.

William Mahone became a wealthy man. He turned from business to politics and was the leader of the Adjusters in the U. S. Senate. He led a bill to reduce Virginia's debt by half. He also promoted public education.

General George H. Thomas of the Union Army was also a native of Southampton County, Virginia. He grew up near Boykins, Virginia.

When the war broke out he was serving with the Union Army and elected to remain with that army. He requested that no major campaigns be conducted in Southampton County. This request probably saved Southampton County from much of the destruction inflicted on other sections of the state.

He became known as "The Rock of Chickamauga" because he held the line in the battle of Chickamauga. He also fought at Chattanooga and defeated the invading Confederate Army at Nashville. He died in 1870 while commanding the Division of the Pacific.

There is a story told that when his family was notified of his death, they told the officer they had no relative by that name. If this is true, the family never forgave him for serving with the Union Army in the Civil War.

James P. Whitfield and Elizabeth Lucindy Gardner were married March 14, 1871. A copy of the marriage license is on page 217. There were two sons and one daughter born to this union. They were: Patrick Henry Whitfield, George William Whitfield, and Alice Elizabeth Whitfield.

William James Whitfield.

James P. Whitfield was married twice. His second wife was Margaret (Maggie) Gardner. I have not found who her mother and father were. There were no children born from this marriage.

The Whitfield family genealogy follows the family to present time but will not be included in this book. Anyone who may be interested in this family line can write to me (Norman L. Gardner) for this information. I will be more than happy to supply this information (see chart 6A4B, 6A4C, & 6A4D).

6. GEORGE NELSON GARDNER was born Oct. 22, 1848 and was the son of Nelson B. and Unity Gardner. He grew up in Isle of Wight County and married Mary Louise Whitfield Dec. 21, 1871.

Mary L. Whitfield was the daughter of Benjamin and Peggy Whitfield.

Mary must have died young because George N. Gardner married Grace Kennedy Feb. 2, 1887. Grace was the daughter of John and Mary Kennedy.

Grace and George N. Gardner had one child, Vivian Gardner.

A. VIVIAN GARDNER married Paul Kennedy Dec. 12, 1907. I know that Vivian and Paul Kennedy had at least one child. He is Oscar Kennedy. and he lives in Suffolk, Virginia.

George N. Gardner's mother left the farm to her husband, Nelson B. Gardner, for his life. At Nelson's death the farm was to go to George Nelson Gardner.

George was to pay each of the other heirs a set amount of money for their share of the estate. As far as I know, he carried out the instructions in his mother's Will.
